KICK BACK AND TAKE IT SLEAZY THIS CHRISTMAS!

GOVERNMENT U-TURNS ON U-TURNS

The government is preparing a raft of U-turns in the New Year. A new government department is being set up to avoid giving the impression that U-turns are a sign of chaos and indecision.

From now on, U-turns will be announced at the same time as the policy, which ministers hope will avoid the negative press of previous U-turns.

Speaking about the proposal, Sir Freddie Faquhar-Fauntelroy MP for Giggleswick East said he was pleased the Government had seen sense and reversed the policy before it came into force. Sir Bumpy Bumpkin MP for Repton and Uppingham, speaking from his offices at consulting firm Dido, Harding and Sunak, also expressed support for the new approach to U-turns.

The Government will also bring forward plans to pay consultants to stand in for MPs who are unavailable to vote due to onerous but lucrative consulting commitments in the Caribbean, Maldives or Seychelles.

Speaking against the plans, Darren "Daz" Haigh Labour MP for Paddock Junior School, said "This is typical of this Government. It's one rule for them and another for the rest of us".

Responding to criticism of the new rules, Sir Trellis Ellis, MP for Oundle and Roundel was quick to point out the hypocrisy inherent in the Labour argument before suddenly doing a U-turn himself, after admitting he hadn't read the proposal.

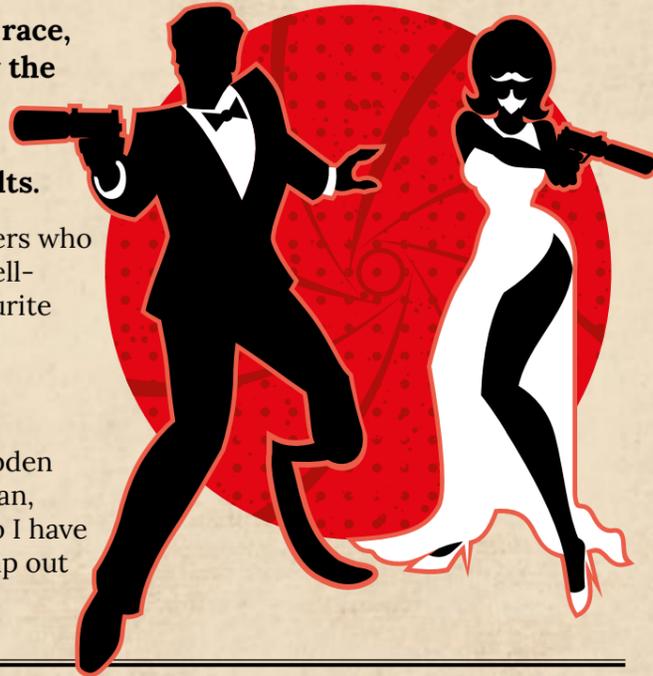

NO BOND MOVIES THIS CHRISTMAS AS BBC FEARS WOKE BACKLASH

As the clamour for a one legged, aspergic, mixed race, transgender actor with a regional accent, to play the next James Bond gathers pace, the BBC has accepted that the Bond franchise has run its course, and is no longer suitable viewing for adults.

Without actually asking any of the 99.9% of their viewers who still don't mind a bit of innuendo, casual sexism and well-intentioned objectification of women, this festive favourite will disappear into the past.

HEAD OF YOGHURT

Speaking from a yurt made entirely from lentils, in Hebden Bridge, Dido Duzyerheadin, Head of Yoghurt at So Vegan, welcomed the news saying "I don't have a television, so I have never seen a Bond Movie, but I am determined to stamp out this kind of frivolity."

TRADE SECRETARY BOTCHES FINTECH DEAL WITH LAPLAND

Children in the UK are preparing for a Brexit style Christmas, without Father Christmas, because the UK government has failed to strike a significant new trade deal with the frozen wasteland known as Lapland. In a tit for tat manoeuvre aimed at pressuring the EU to allow our folklore heroes to fly over EU airspace, the MOD have been ordered to shoot down any reindeer drawn sleighs flying over Britain.

EMPTY HEADED

Trade Secretary Liz Truss returned empty handed from days of talks which were also aimed at lifting restrictions on imports of the Aurora Borealis to the UK. Unable to shed any light on the matter, Ms Truss said she had been kept in the dark throughout her stay in Finland and had now gone cold on the idea.

REINDEERS MUST BE RENAMED INSISTS MAD ACTIVIST

Speaking from Hebden Bridge, Hagrid Allnotavit, Head of Cancelling at Cancel Culture Charity, Spoil It for Everyone said "So-called Christmas songs contain stereotypes that threaten to undermine our right to be killjoys.

PORN STARS

"How come the female reindeer have deeply suggestive names like Cupid and Vixen which make them sound like porn stars, where the men have perfectly normal names like Donner and Blitzen?" she whined.

Hebden Bridge

"It's one rule for them and another for the rest of us, when it comes to reindeer" she added.

FUN'S OVER DECLARE WOKE-ISTS

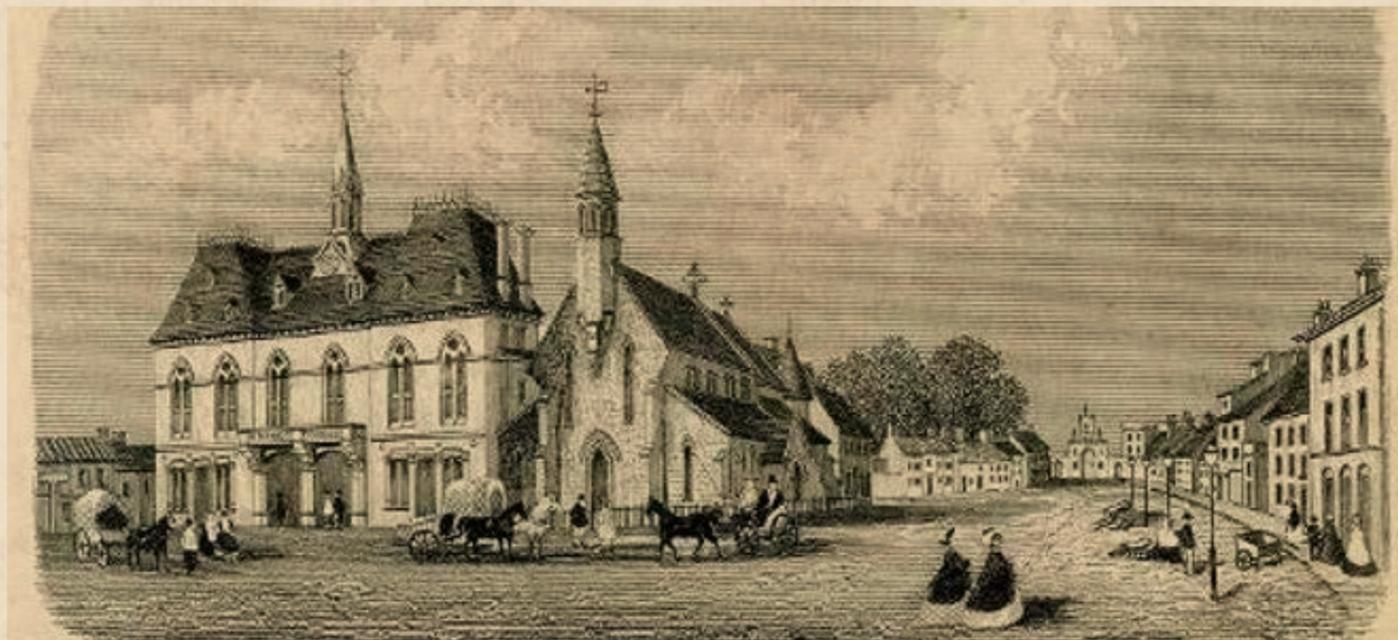

Christmas may soon be combined with Halloween as an unlikely alliance between woke-ist killjoys, supermarket bosses and Druid activists insist Christmas is no longer relevant to an increasingly secular society.

They say that it would be more relevant if a new gender neutral and more inclusive celebration to be called Halloweenmas, could become one long consumer binge, running from the end of October to mid-January.

Church leaders are understandably troubled by the proposal. Sticking his nose in on behalf of all 180 members of the Church of England, Arch Bishop Justin Selby intoned "I pray that these are just rumours. Jesus was big on inclusivity man and I is too, innit. It will be a Black Friday fo sho if Christmas gets cancelled, oh my brother"

DAILY MAIL NAMES GRETA THUNBERG AS THE MOST EVIL WOMAN IN THE WORLD

The Daily Mail published its festive league table of the world's five most evil women today. The so called "newspaper" said that in a readers poll, the diminutive Swedish climate activist, Greta Kronenberg, narrowly beat Ghislaine Maxwell, to win the title of the world's most evil woman.

In a coruscating editorial, the newspaper accused the campaigner of abusing her position as a schoolgirl, in order to try and save the world. The judges unanimously agreed that Greta Thunberg (4) was a bully who had exploited global warming in order to line her own pockets. The paper also listed Laura Kuensberg, Nadya Hussein, Priti Patel, Anita Rani and Mary Berry as further examples of pure evil.

Elide Taittinger -Booth, MP for Waitrose West was almost too weak to comment, having been trapped in Val D'Isere and held captive by her mother Geraldine, for nearly two weeks.

SPEAKER LOSES CONTROL OVER HIS VOWELS

A Lancastrian

Speaking up for Sir Flimsy, Labour Deputy Leader Gloria Gaynor said she “believes it’s time for people who speak push to pay more taxes.

What with HS2 now terminating at Watford its clear the governments levelling up agenda has hit the buffers. It’s one rail for them and one rail for the rest of us!”

Angela Raynor

Bradford Station

Southern MPs are claiming that Lancastrian speaker, Sir Flimsy Hoyle, speaker of the House of Commons is hard to understand. Speaking from his constituency in the Seychelles, Sir Monty Demi Sec De Montford-Cox, MP for Repton and Charterhouse said he was fed up of straining to understand Sir Cindy Hoyles accent.

“I am sure I am not alone in wishing to talk down to anyone with a northern accent, so it’s no wonder he has lost the confidence of the House”

TOWNS “NO PLATFORMED” AND TRAINS “CANCELLED” BY HS2 U-TURN.

Free speech campaigners now fear for the future of several Northern cities as they will be left without platforms following the much-anticipated admission by the Government that Leeds, Newcastle, Wakefield and Bradford were never going to benefit from the Northern arm of the so called HS2, levelling up, rail link.

A level playing field

Levelling the blame for the failure of the levelling up policy to deliver a level playing field for the now non-existent Northern Powerhouse, red wall MPs were quick to level criticism at Business Secretary Sir Quasi Karzai, himself famous for levelling criticism at the working class, saying “Once they enter the workplace, the British are among the worst idlers in the world”.

A world class Idler

Cross examining Sir Crazy Cortex in the Commons, Sir Kir Royale said “That’s a bit rich coming from you. In my opinion the British are the best idlers in the world.”

THE METAVERSE

MADE SIMPLE

The metaverse will bring together all the disparate elements of Defi, Fintech, Crypto, NFTs and Social Media under one relatable Ai interface, powered by VR tech. Smart contracts on platforms such as Ethereum, and meaningless digital artworks in the form Non Fungible Tokens, exchanged and traded on non-siloed parachains, such as Polkadot and Cosmos, will make fiat currencies and central banks irrelevant.

Meanwhile, crypto currencies created on the block chain will replace gold and the dollar as traditional stores of wealth. The block chain which is an infinitely expandable, unalterable super secure, decentralised chain of blocks democratises money by ensuring that people from all backgrounds, age groups and ethnicities can all lose money, by betting on Bitcoin.
